

CURRICULUM VITAE FOR JIM CALLAGHAN

Jim Callaghan is the Head of Regulatory Affairs with Ryanair Limited, the original European low fares airline, which is closely based on the Southwest Airlines model in the US. In this capacity, Mr. Callaghan deals with a wide variety of legal and regulatory issues and has dealings with the various international bodies and regulatory authorities dealing with aviation.

Mr. Callaghan is also the Company Secretary of Ryanair.

Prior to joining Ryanair, Mr. Callaghan practised in the Brussels office of Linklaters & Alliance specialising in European law and competition law. Mr. Callaghan holds an undergraduate degree in International Studies from De Paul University in Chicago and a joint degree in Law and Public and International Affairs from the University of Pittsburgh. He also completed an LLM in European and International Law at the Free University of Brussels.