

Curriculum vitae: Stefan Vilner

Stefan Vilner, born on may the 4th 1967 in Denmark, graduated from Copenhagen Business School in 1994 as Master in International Business Administration and Intercultural Communication.

After a period as Marketing Manager in L'Oréal, in early 1998 Stefan joined the newly started British Airways owned Low Cost airline Go-Fly Ltd., as Sales and Marketing manager. Stefan was part of the Go team for three years and left when BA chose to sell Go. Stefan returned to Denmark.

In the period from 2001 to 2003 Stefan worked in the travel industry as consultant and CEO in various companies heading turnarounds, but returned to the low cost airline sector in the summer of 2003, when he joined Scandinavia's Leading Low Cost Airline Sterling, as Commercial Director.

Sterling.dk is based in Copenhagen Denmark, Norwegian Owned and operates out of Denmark, Norway and Sweden to 25 European destinations.